MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. NATIONAL SERVICE DAY YOURH ACTIVITY

In honor of the 'beloved community' dream of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. & the MLK National Day of Service, area Youth can create their own 'I Have Dream...' vision of their ideal community. Youth are invited to write their dream on paper cut-out candles for display on their community bulletin boards or on the windows of the Salt Lake City Main Library.

Individuals, groups and families are encouraged to visit the Library 'Youth Dream Candle Display' to read the hopes and dreams of our youngest community members. The Display runs January 19th to 31st. Youth may also create their Dream Candles in the Childrens' Section of the Main Library during this time.

Project materials (including an educational brochure about Dr. King and a candle template) may be downloaded at volunteers.utah.gov. For information or to display candles in the community or at the Main Library, please contact: Tamara B. Wharton at twharton@utah.gov or at 801.538.8744.

MLK DAY - MAKE IT A DAY ON, NOT A DAY OFF!
